

ST PETER'S CHURCH, CHURCH LANGTON

Art & Music

May 3rd - 5th 2008

CATALOGUE

This is the fifth Art Exhibition to be held in St. Peter's Church since 2000AD. However, this year we have decided on a theme of music and the artists have been requested to produce works inspired by music. This is the start of preparations for what will surely be one of the greatest occasions in the history of this beautiful church. Next year will be the 250th anniversary of the performance of Handel's Messiah at St. Peter's which was the first parish church to perform the work in September 1759; the work was first performed in Dublin ten years earlier. There will be a weekend of music and events, culminating with the Messiah. As part of the build up to the event there are concerts planned in July and October 2008. A summer concert will be held on Saturday 26th July where the Phoenix choir will be performing. Furthermore, on Saturday 11th October the Harborough Singers will also be performing. Please put these dates in your diary, should you require further information please contact Maxine Johnson 01858 545745.

We hope that you will not only enjoy this exhibition but also take time to look around the church. Please note the fine organ casement, this was installed for the first performance of Messiah and was originally in the west end of the church. If you glance at the Vicar board by the main door you will notice that one of our past Rectors, Lawrence Saunders was burnt at the stake in 1555 at the height of the reintroduction of Catholicism. He refused to accept Transubstantiation; that the bread and wine is the very body and blood of Christ as acknowledged by the Roman Catholic faith. He was in fact a friend of Cranmer, Latimer and Ridley, the great names of Protestantism who were also martyred. It is possible that Saunders would have achieved high office had he survived those turbulent times.

Please note that Cream Teas are held in the church every Sunday afternoon until the end of September.
